The Kennedy Center

The Alabama School of the Arts' Department of Theatre is a proud participant of The Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival (KCACTF), a national theater program involving 18,000 students annually from colleges and universities across the country.

Productions entered in the KCACTF represent the work of faculty and students of the individual university theater program and qualify students for award opportunities. Productions receive outside response on their work and nominate a student to participate in the Irene Ryan Acting Scholarship Auditions.
